

RESOLUTION OF THE CALIFORNIA FAIR POLITICAL PRACTICES COMMISSION

The California Fair Political Practices Commission, pursuant to its statutory responsibility for the impartial and effective administration, implementation and enforcement of the Political Reform Act of 1974, and in order to effectuate its purpose, does hereby announce, proclaim and resolve that:

Philip Blair

be recognized and honored for his loyal and dedicated service to the Fair Political Practices Commission. Now, therefore, be it known to all persons that:

WHEREAS, Philip Blair has served as a Commissioner of the California Fair Political Practices Commission from 2003-2007, appointed to that position by Governor Gray Davis in July of 2003; and

WHEREAS, he served on the Fair Political Practices Commission for nearly four years, at all times bringing a straightforward and common-sense approach to the administration and implementation of the Political Reform Act; and

WHEREAS, his experience as a highly successful, respected businessman, civic leader and community volunteer provided an invaluable contribution to the Commission as it considered many significant and groundbreaking issues under the Political Reform Act; and

WHEREAS, his good-natured but tireless advocacy for Commission rules and instructions to be stated in clear, understandable language – avoiding that dreaded “attorney-speak” and “legalese” – was deeply appreciated by other Commissioners, the regulated community, public and staff; and

WHEREAS, he has served his community and state in countless other ways, including:

- ◇ As president and chief executive officer of Manpower Temporary Services in San Diego, a leading area employer
- ◇ Service on the boards of directors of numerous community organizations, including the Naval Training Center Foundation for the Arts and Culture, the San Diego County Convention and Visitor’s Bureau, the San Diego Lincoln Club, the Greater San Diego Chamber of Commerce, the Red Cross, Children’s Hospital and YMCA of San Diego County, the San Diego Workforce Partnership, the regional School-to-Career Task Force, and the San Diego Community Foundation.
- ◇ Service as a member of the San Diego City Council.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fair Political Practices Commission commends Philip Blair for his exemplary service to the people of California, his contributions to the interpretation, understanding and enforcement of the Political Reform Act, and his unfailingly judicious and dedicated service to the agency and to the State of California.
